

ACCEPTANCE OF RESPONSIBILITY

The company identified below (the "Company"), on behalf of itself and its officers, directors, shareholders and employees, recognizes and acknowledges that some products requested from Advanced Biotechnologies, Inc, a Maryland corporation ("ABI"), represent a potential infectious hazard to persons handling, or in the vicinity of, the material and to public health. The Company hereby assumes all risk and responsibility in connection with its receipt, handling, storage, use, and disposal of any and all products obtained from ABI.

The Company certifies that it will employ the appropriate biosafety standards, as indicated in the "Biosafety in Microbiological and Biomedical Laboratories," NIH-CDC, HHS Publication No. (CDC) 21-1112 (see www.cdc.gov/biosafety). The Company will comply, and will cause all of its employees and agents to comply, with all applicable government health and safety regulations and Public Health Service guidelines. Trained personnel will directly supervise all users of the material, and the Company hereby assumes the responsibility for assuring that those users are cognizant of and comply with safety standards and good laboratory practices. It is the responsibility of the Company to update ABI in writing regarding any changes to its safety policies. The Company further agrees to ABI's Terms and Conditions of Sale, available at www.abionline.com/terms and incorporated herein by reference.

The Company hereby agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold ABI harmless from and against any and all known or unknown claims, demands, liabilities, obligations, losses, fines, penalties, damages, assessments, judgments, costs, expenses (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees, court costs and other costs and expenses incurred in investigating, preparing or defending against any litigation, claim, action, suit, proceeding or demand of any kind or character or in enforcing this Acceptance of Responsibility) arising from or related to the Company's breach of or failure to perform any representation, warranty, covenant, duty or obligation made by or accepted by the Company under this Acceptance of Responsibility.

The term of this Acceptance of Responsibility commences on the date it is executed by the Company and shall continue indefinitely; provided, however, that the Company may terminate this Acceptance of Responsibility prospectively by providing ABI not less than thirty days prior written notice, delivered to the attention of the President of ABI at the principal office address of ABI by certified mail, return receipt requested.
